The Kirby Rulon Memorial Show is an all breed open horse show held in honor of the late Kirby Rulon who lost a life long battle with cystic fibrosis in 2014. Kirby was an inspiration to many and one of the hardest working talents in the industry, contributing a huge part of his life promoting his love of horses. The Kirby Rulon Memorial Show 2016 proceeds from the show will be used for matching grant funds to create the Kirby Rulon Memorial Barn (behind show office), The Peyton Manning Children's Hospital and the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation Indiana Chapter (www.cff.org). What a great way to honor the life of our friend then to come together and raise it up doing what he loved most, showing horses.
